Scotland is the home of golf. Discover world famous courses & those loved by locals on this unique, luxury golfing vacation. Exclusive accommodation, fantastic experiences and a spirit of fun – this tour has something for everyone!

Join us as we discover Scotland on an exclusive, world-class golf holiday. Visiting some of the world's most historic golf courses, we'll be based at exclusive accommodation set in beautiful Scottish countryside, and one of Edinburgh's most iconic hotels.

Scotland is, of course, the birthplace of golf and several of the sport's most iconic courses are just a short drive away from our stately bases, including the 'Home of Golf' - St. Andrews or Carnoustie. You'll also get the chance to play some lesser known, hidden gems loved by locals.

Our exclusive accommodation includes two private castles - Kinnettles and Kincardine Castle. These stately homes will amaze with their architecture and sense of grandeur. What's more, enjoy the attentions of a private butler service and chef, luxury bedroom suites and elegant dining rooms.

And the non-golfers are not forgotten on this tour. From exploring historic castle, sampling a wee nip of Scotland's finest whisky and of course, bagpipes, you'll be spoilt on this exclusive new tour.

DAY 2 - GLORIOUS ST ANDREWS

St Andrews needs little introduction - known as the home of golf.

After breakfast, we will head all together to the historic coastal city of St Andrews. Whilst the golfers take to the greens of the iconic course, the non-golfers in will enjoy a guided tour of the historic university town where William and Kate had their first kiss.

Everyone will rejoin for lunch in St Andrews before a visit to the British Golf museum. The views from upstairs in the museum of the old golf course and the sea are well worth seeing over a hot chocolate.

We return to Kinnettles Mansion for our final evening, with pre-dinner drinks before being called to dinner.

After dinner, be charmed by tales by a traditional Scottish storyteller

Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Accommodation: Kinnettles Mansion

DAY 3 - PLAYING CARNOUSTIE LINKS OR CHARMING CASTLES

We'll enjoy breakfast this morning at Kinnettles Mansion before our transport arrives for our day excursion.

The non-golfers will head to Lunan Bay in Montrose, a beautiful stretch of the Angus coastline overlooked by Red Castle, built in the 12th Century for Scots King William the Lion to protect from Viking invaders.

The group will all rejoin for lunch at the Rookery, before heading together to Arbikie Distillery for a tour and tasting. Family run, the distillery's crops are grown by the sea, giving their spirits a unique taste and flavour.

The non-golfers will head to Aberdeen's Distillery & Gin School. Situated in a historic Railway arch, you'll enjoy a tailored gin tasting. With a double G&T in hand, learn about Aberdeen's lost distilling heritage, explore the distillery including the restricted production area, find out how you can make your own gin at home, take part in a Q&A session with the head distiller and finally enjoy a gin tasting from a range of true Aberdeen gins. What's more, you'll take away with you a sample of gin.

Afterwards, we will make our way to Manar House, our home for the next 3 nights, where we'll be greeted with a champagne reception before dinner.

The group's non-golfers will head to the stunning location of Dunnottar Castle. A spectacular ancient ruin on a sea cliff crag, the Scottish crown jewels were hidden from Cromwell here during the English Civil war around 1650! Furthermore, Franco Zeffereilli used this spectacular ruin to create the tormented world of his Hamlet and more recently it was the inspiration for Disney's Brave and Daniel Radcliffe and James McAvoy even filmed part of Frankenstein at the castle.

The local event celebrates the best of Scottish culture and athleticism. Watch as competitors showcase their strength and skill in traditional Highland games and bagpipe solo and band competitions.

We will enjoy lunch in Edinburgh before some free time in the city for final souvenir shopping or sightseeing.

The famous Tolbooth Tavern, Edinburgh's oldest pub which boasts more than 200 years of Scottish hospitality will be the location for our final pre-dinner drinks and meal together to round off our fantastic week in Scotland.
